

INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT – PLEASE POST AND CIRCULATE

ARCHIVES INTERNSHIP

Announced December 10, 2010

The Organization

Chartered by the Georgia General Assembly in 1839, the Georgia Historical Society is a private, non-profit organization that serves as the historical society for the state of Georgia. GHS is the oldest cultural institution in Georgia and one of the oldest state historical societies in the nation. For nearly 170 years, GHS has fulfilled its mission to collect, preserve, and share Georgia's history by presenting a variety of educational programs, authoring publications on Georgia and southern history, and by operating a library and archives at its statewide headquarters in Savannah.

Internship Summary

The Georgia Historical Society seeks reliable interns for archival processing projects. Under the supervision of the Senior Archivist, interns will arrange, describe, and preserve collection materials according to current archival standards.

Ideal candidates include master's degree students in library and information science, history, public history, museum studies, or historic preservation requiring internship projects for college credit. Independent internships will be considered on a case by case basis.
